

Brain Transplant Assignment

Choose one of the 3 questions below to answer. Your answer needs to be written on paper and is due Monday. The answer needs to be in complete sentences and should consist of at least 8 quality sentences. (20 points)

1. Based on the information in the article, it appears that there are several “limitations” to the future of brain transplants. Analyze one limitation and describe why it truly is a limitation to the future of brain transplants.
2. Look up the definition of morality. Express your moral stance on the idea of brain transplants. Would it be a moral practice? Would it be a moral practice with restrictions or stipulations? Back up your answer with supporting evidence.
3. Describe several real life situations where brain transplants would be a beneficial procedure. Explain how the transplant procedure would benefit the recipient.